| Overall for this assignment you needed to read the brief more carefully to attain a higher mark. There were important section of the practical task not completed fully and you need to improve the depth of your statements and observations.                                                                                                                                                     | 100             | 59            |

| In your report you have used a range of different sources but not included a bibliography to go with them, which you have referenced but not included comments within your report. You have discussed the concept but not gone into the full depth required or looked at case studies to expand your description of the topic just listed a particular use, not stated any information of the use. | 20              | 8             |

| This was one of your weaker section as you did not go in depth enough in your analysis of the technology that you were using. This extended into the observations as well.                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 15              | 6             |

| You have created the domain and the child domain, this has then extended to creating users but not the ones given. You have shared a drive and created your IIS server and this extended to your DHCP setup and remote access. More screenshots of some section to show all settings would have helped to explain your work                                                                        | 40              | 27            |

| Your report was of a good standard and contained all the relevant sections. It flowed well with referencing being used and no spelling errors and included all the relevant screenshots. Your presentation also was well produced.                                                                                                                                                                 | 10              | 8             |
