

MARKING CRITERIA AND STUDENT FEEDBACK

This section details the assessment criteria. The extent to which these are demonstrated by you determines your mark. The marks available for each criterion are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

Common Assessment Criteria Applied	Marks available	Marks awarded
1. Research-informed Literature Extent of research and/or own reading; selection of credible sources; application of appropriate referencing conventions.
Use appropriate resources and reference correctly. Enhance your work with appropriate definitions and explanation of key e-commerce concepts. You are now applying the correct referencing style 😊 but still not including enough research - its more up to date though!	10	5
2. Knowledge and Understanding of Subject Extent of knowledge and understanding of concepts and underlying principles associated with the discipline.
Appraise the selected e-commerce infrastructure using appropriate theory and show understanding of any shortcomings. Some basic comparison of options & explanation of choices. This would have been enhanced by further research.	20	11
3. Analysis Analysis, evaluation and synthesis; logic, argument and judgement; analytical reflection; organisation of ideas and evidence
Apply appropriate metrics techniques to your chosen site. Demonstrate application of dynamic web design. Some basic discussion of concepts such as networks, informal language. Avoid "you" "your website"!	20	10
4. Practical Application and Deployment Deployment of methods, materials, tools and techniques; application of concepts; formulation of innovative and creative solutions to solve problems.
Demonstrate a working e-commerce prototype meeting the scenario requirements and including a B2B element. Development meets basic requirements. No B2B similarity.	50	26
5. Skills for Professional Practice Attributes in professional practice: individual and collaborative working; deployment of appropriate media; presentation and organisation.
