

Final
MAJOR PROJECT - ~~October 2016~~, Poster (weighting of 5%)

|                         |                                                                                                                        |  |
|-------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| Student Name:           | Antonia Howell                                                                                                         |  |
| Title of Project:       | Medication Reminder Application                                                                                        |  |
| Supervisor:             |                                                                                                                        |  |
| 2 nd marker: | Dr John Ross                                                                                                           |  |
| Course:                 | BIT   BusComp   CIS   CNets   CSE   ElectricalGames   Mobile   TRE   SE   Web                      (please circle) |  |
| Project Type:           | Survey   Review   Experiment Development (please circle)                                                        |  |

| 1. Knowledge and Understanding of Subject |                      |
|-------------------------------------------|----------------------|
| Clarity of Technical Description (PTO)    | 30 /50               |
| 2. Skills for Professional Practice       |                      |
| Quality of Visual Display (PTO)           | 40 50 /50 |
| TOTAL                              | 70 /100       |

Comments:

Clear, well presented poster expressing the basic concept ~~and~~ of the project. Lacked a little technical detail overall.

Signed: .....  ..... (Supervisor)

.....  ..... (2nd marker)