Research Club

Weds 8th Nov 2023 3pm – 4:30pm
Room 310 IQ*

PERCH would like to invite you along to the next Research Club meeting. This will be another opportunity to discuss and explore current research taking place within the team.

Karen Eaton Thomas

‘The impact of barriers to accessing education on self-stigma, self-efficacy and self-esteem in people seeking sanctuary in Wales: a mixed methods analysis and intervention study’

Karen will be presenting a summary of her current PHD project and an update on the process of the initial phases of her research.

Kyra Quarterly

‘Project WAW: Recognising the impact of sustainable Wellbeing at Work Initiatives: what works; for who; and why’

Kyra will be presenting summary of PERCH’s HEFCW funded workplace wellbeing project and an overview of the results from the first phases of research.

Please get in touch if you would like to present a topic in the area of psychology, counselling and/or mental health research at a future seminar!

Refreshments will be provided to attendees on campus

Please contact Amy Bendall on a.bendall@uwtsd.ac.uk for further details or to confirm your place

*We will provide a Teams link closer to the date but in order to foster collaboration and fully enjoy the event, we encourage you to attend in person if you can.
