

MARKING CRITERIA and STUDENT FEEDBACK

This section details the assessment criteria. The extent to which these are demonstrated by you determines your mark. The marks available for each criterion are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

Common Assessment Criteria Applied	Marks Available	Marks Awarded
1. Engagement with Literature Skills
A fair overview on distributed databases and comments made were valid. However, there is some discussion on why you have fragmented the database in this way is based on sensitive data. However, is this about fragmenting the data so that the database can continue working is elements were "down". With regards to the discussion on indexing, you have missed the point i.e., it is all about speeding up the search	10	5
2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills
You have provided a set of scripts that insert and update data within the database, but you have not carried out the requirements of the assessment i.e., demonstrate constraints are working and transactions are working fine (rollback and commit)	25	8
3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills
A fair overview around your discussion/implementation of the a distributed database. I am certain if fragmenting can be based around sensitive data - then you should have referenced it, if you can argue it, reflect on it	20	7
4. Practical Application Skills
Generally, a well balanced solution that satisfies most of the criteria of the scenario (What about the beds). Check constraints are valid, but you have not considered any scripts that index the data	40	34
5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice
A well presented and structured piece of work. On a personal point of note, make the document more preentable and make your illustration a little more readable	5	4
