

The NHS is the largest emitter of CO₂ in the public sector

Many of the detrimental health issues people currently face - like cancer - are directly linked to environmental pollutants and climate change.

NHS journeys - deliveries and ambulances make up 5% of UK road traffic.

NHS Carbon Footprint Breakdown

59%

Procurement of goods

24%

Energy Usage

17%

Staff & Patient Travel

Benefits of installing energy efficient lighting (LEDs):

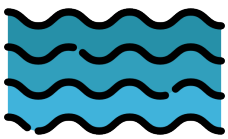

- When operated 24/7 they will last 6 years aprox.
- Incandescent and fluorescent lighting will not last more than a year.
- Use less than a third of the energy of fluorescent bulbs.

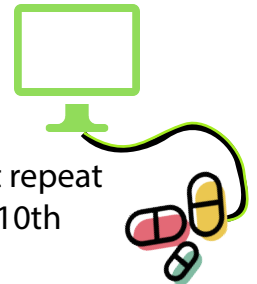

Office lights left on overnight use enough energy in 1 year to heat a home for almost 5 months

10% of London's hospitals

are at risk of flooding

On average, 40% of people get repeat prescription drugs, but only 1/10th of which use online services

In 2015, the NHS Survey on over 1000 people

92%

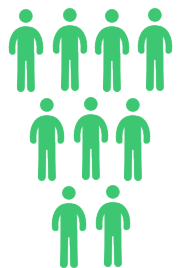

Believe that it is important for the NHS to work in a more sustainable way

OF WHICH
43%

Think it should be done even if it's an added expense

OF WHICH
25%

Believe it should be a top priority

Yearly, the NHS generates roughly 400,000 tonnes of waste and recyclable material.

Every 36 hours the NHS caters to 1 million patients

Annually, the NHS spends £100 million on waste disposal.

NHS