STOCK TRADER

Who exactly are stock traders?

Stock traders are those professionals who trade equity securities in specific exchanges. Their primary aim is to purchase and sell shares of different companies trying to speculate from their prices's fluctuations.

Traders cover a significant part in the market since they generate necessary liquidity, which helps the two financial players, investors and other traders. Liquidity implies there's sufficient volume of exchanges just as buyers and sellers in the market so that stocks can be purchased or sold without any problem.

TIME MANAGEMENT SKILLS

Many reasons benefits of being a stock trader. Main one is FLEXIBILITY. The stock trader has got total control on his own time, however many struggle managing their time. Following few ways to manage time effectively:

- GOOD SLEEP: Sleep helps the trader staying refreshed during the day. Best way is to sleep early and then wake up early as well;
- HAVE GOALS: having a set of goals the trader wants to achieve within a certain period of time
- PRIORITIZE: the trader must learn to prioritize his tasks. Most important things first;
- TIME OFF: breaks throughout trading day to increase productivity;
- NO DISRUPTIONS: the trader should not be disrupted by external things like TV, Social medias, etc.
