STUDENTS CHALLENGES IN WELSH
EDUCATION SETTINGS

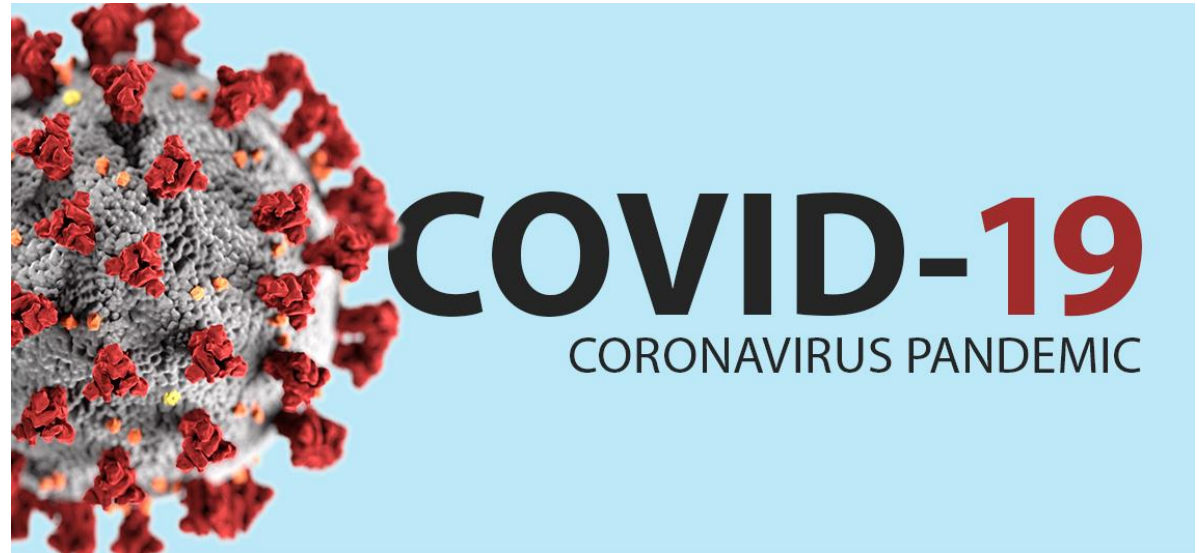

Children suffer when they come from a less privilege area, where money and food is a struggle.

Covid 19
affected so many children's lives
and is still
affecting them
now.

Too many children
in one class for one teacher

The Welsh Government are struggling to recruit new teachers leading to a shortage.

Negative
behaviour in schools have an affect on everyone
from the teachers
to the other pupils.

Young children often have to look after their parents who are ill and then struggle with school work.
