

2. b. BGP.

A path attribute is a list of AS number that a route has passed through on its way to a destination. A path attribute is additional information connected with a prefix that is included in the UPDATE packet during the route exchange.

3.

4. show ip nat