solutions. Event solution.
I choose this slogan because analysing my questionnaire I can see that most of the customers are women , and it should be something that will attract attention , first they look at colours and pictures after if they are getting interested they can open a link and check that offers we have and samples or some video from another events that we have done before. After I have used a wedding and birthday party pictures because these two events are important for every single person.
An event planner structures an event, coordinate all the moving parts, and makes sure everyone has a good time. Prepare a poster it is important because its your first step to attract new customers. It's like a face for every single business and to get success and have a lot of customers poster its one of important step. Posters for your business must be strategical prepare them on the right way you will have a lot of customers and good recommendations from them. So, on my poster I try to show all beautiful moments and events that I will be ready to offer for my customers. My business its more creative and poster have be creative too, this its my offers and will be happy to help people make from one simple event one of the most memorable for whole life..
