This trip is designed to aid Tourism and Events students of UWTSD, to balance academic learning, and educate them about cultural experiences.

Gives students insight on the tourism and events sector within Greece, and how sustainability and caring for the environment is a vital part of Greece's future.

TARGET MARKET

Prifysgol Cymru
Y Drindod Dewi Sant
University of Wales
Trinity Saint David

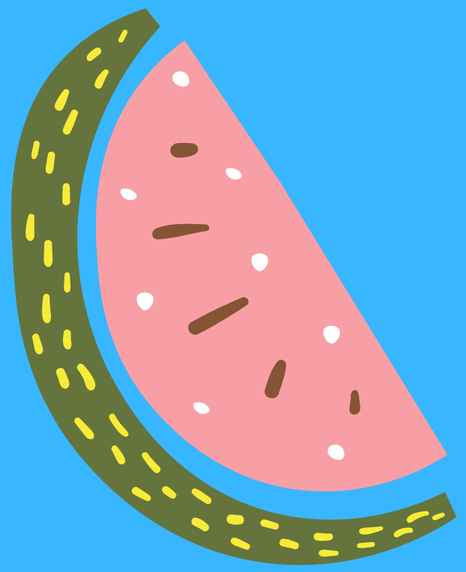

Suitable for students from first to third year.

Events students would also very much benefit from this trip as it gives insights to event marketing and management, while also educating students how to structure and plan events.

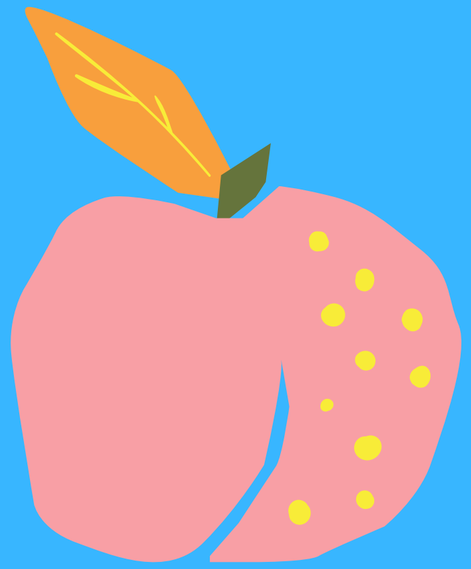

At the end of each day on the trip, the students would be required to make a short video diary explaining their academic findings within the trip and share among their peers and lecturers.

Pax

This trip is designed for 22 participants.

The ratio of male to female students is 2:3, with 8 male students and 12 female students.

There will be 2 members of staff attending to comply with having a member of staff per 10 students.

Links

If you wish to include a link to our Website, unless you have our written permission, you may only do so to our homepage. This Website contains links to other websites that may either be websites operated by companies or brands which are members of the TUI AG group of companies or external websites operated by our selected suppliers or partners or other third party websites. Occasionally as you browse, book travel arrangements or use the functionality on this Website we may provide you with links or connect you to websites which may be our branded or third party branded sites. These links or connections are made available so you can search for and purchase additional services, find out further information on our services and your personal travel arrangements quickly and easily and find out about the products and services of our other group companies and brands. Please note that we are not responsible for nor do we endorse the content of these websites and your access and use of these websites will be subject to the terms and conditions of those websites.

Website Facilities

We have made available various services, tools and functionality on this Website for your use. The information set out by us on these pages tells you how you can use these services, tools and functionality to find out about and book our products (as well as those provided by our selected partners), view content provided by us, interact with us and submit and share views with other customers. Your use of this Website in these ways is subject to these Website Terms and Conditions that incorporate:

Customer Account

Account Set-up

When you make a booking with us an account will be created for you. You will receive an email after you make your booking asking you to activate your account. If you do not have a booking with us you can register for an account by providing your name and email address and creating a password. If you make a booking with us after you have registered for an account you will be able to view that booking in your account as long as you use the same email address you registered with when you make your booking. You are responsible for keeping your password safe and secure and for all activities that take place on your account.

Your Bookings

The lead passenger will be able to view details of current and historic bookings, including cancelled bookings, in your account.

Shortlists

You can use the shortlist feature to store up to 10 holidays. These will stay in your shortlist until you remove them. This allows you to view the saved holidays whenever you are logged in to your account. The prices of the holidays may go up or down and you will be shown the most up to date price each time you view the holiday.

B: Our supply of products and services

Normally when you purchase our products and/or services and book travel arrangements on this Website your agreement is with TUI UK and if not we will make it clear to you that TUI UK is acting as an agent for another travel provider. If you book a flight only that is operated by TUI Airways then your contract is with them. See our Booking Terms and Conditions for the terms and conditions relevant to the purchase of travel products and holidays from us.

In addition, when you book any products or services from us, you will do so subject to these Website Terms and Conditions, our Booking Terms and Conditions and such further terms and conditions as may be applied by the hotel or cruise ship where you will be staying (together, the "Conditions of Contract"). These Conditions of Contract constitute the entire agreement and understanding between you and TUI UK in relation to their subject matter. By proceeding with a booking, you acknowledge that you have read and understood all of the Conditions of Contract and agree to be bound by them. However, if you do not or cannot accept our Conditions of Contract in full, you must stop using our Website immediately. These Conditions of Contract may vary from time to time. By browsing this Website you accept that you are bound by the Conditions of Contract current at the time when you browse or book.

Please note that TUI UK may provide accommodation, transport from a wide range of third party accommodation providers and carriers including airlines, ships and railways. The provision of these arrangements will be subject to the terms and conditions of each provider or carrier as part of your Conditions of Contract with us (either as agent for the provider or carrier or as part of our holiday package as you will see in section 1 of the Booking Terms and Conditions). Other holiday and travel related services such as travel insurance, foreign exchange and travel money cards are supplied by our selected service providers and are available for you to purchase through our own branded websites or directly via the supplier website – the supply of these products and services to you shall be subject to the terms and conditions of each service provider and not us. You can find information on most of these suppliers and their services on our Extras page. We cannot list all of the supplier's and their terms and conditions here but you will be able to find the terms and conditions or conditions of carriage for these suppliers on their own web sites - you will need to have read them carefully before you book and/or travel. If you are unable to find these then please Contact Us.

C: Your information

All details provided by you or collected when you use this Website will be used and held by us in accordance with our Privacy Notice. Information about cookies and their use by us on this Website can be found in our Cookies Notice.

D: General

These terms and conditions do not affect your statutory rights.

Updates and Changes

We may remove or make changes to the products, information, content, materials, tools and features on this Website at any time without liability and without notice to you. We also reserve the right to immediately terminate or suspend your use of or access to this Website at any time and without notice if we consider that you have breached any of our Terms and Conditions. We may also change or modify all of any parts of our Terms and Conditions at any time and such changes or modifications shall be effective immediately upon their publication. You should review these regularly to ensure you are familiar with the most up to date version. Browsing and continuing to access or use our Website constitutes your acceptance of the updated terms and conditions and you agree to by bound by the updated terms and conditions.
